RESULT OF THE DRIVE

Alexandria "Over The Top" Nearly $200,000 in Sale of Fourth Liberty Loan Bonds—There Were 4,193 Subscribers Here

This city may well feel proud of the splendid showing made by her citizens in the Fourth or last Liberty Loan drive. Capt. Leo. P. Harlow, chairman of the local committee, today received the official figures showing the total sales made here during that drive and also the sales in Alexandria.

Alexandria went away "Over the top" in this drive. Her apportionment was $621,300 and the sales here amounted to $808,550 or in other words exactly $187,250 more than the allotment for Alexandria was sold.

The figures as announced for Alexandria based on a population of 20,000 which, of course, are entirely too small, Alexandria having greatly increased her population during the past year are as follows:

Banking resources $4,142,000; apportionment, $621,300; amount subscribed, $808,550; number of subscribers, 4,193; per cent of population subscribing, 20.96; per capita subscribing subscriptions, $40.43.

In Alexandria county, based on an estimated population of 15,000, figures given are as follows: Banking resources, $235,000; apportionment $300,000; amount subscribed, $124,250; number of subscribers, 1,334; per cent of population subscribing, 8.89; per capita subscriptions, $8.28.

The report, however, shows, that Alexandria county far overscribed the amount given in by the banks, the subscribers purchasing elsewhere.

The local committee, of which Capt. Harlow was chairman, deserves unstinted praise for the fine showing made in that campaign. All of the members of the committee worked hard in this drive.

Alexandria in all previous campaigns has "gone over the top" and in the various lines of war work throughout the war did splendidly, never lagging in patriotic work.

DIED

DIED—DERRICK—On March 4 at her residence, MRS. JANE DERRICK, the devoted mother of Mrs. Sarah Gray and Miss Rachel A. Derrick. Funeral Friday afternoon March 7, at 3:30 o'clock from Roberts Chapel M. E. Church.

DISORDER IN BERLIN

Sparticans And Other Radicals Say Present Scenes Are Only the Beginning of a Reign of Terror to be Precipitated.

Berlin, March 6.—Spartacans have occupied the Alexander Platz police station. Three policemen were killed.

Bakers and butchers' shops were pillaged, and the troops are still battling among themselves.

Martial law has been proclaimed in Brandenburg.

The present riots in Berlin have become as violent as those which marked the Spartacan revolt led by Karl Liebknecht.

The radicals appear to be concerntrating their efforts on capturing police stations. Thirty-two have been attacked. Central station has been assaulted three times. Several policemen, captured by the mobs, are reported to have been lynched.

Arms depots, jewelry shops and food stores have been pillaged.

Berlin, March 5.—A score of persons were killed or wounded during Tuesday night as the result of clashes between government troops and strikers in Brunnenstrasse. Although the newspapers declare there are not enough strikers to endanger the government's hold on the situation, Spartacans and other radicals assert that "this is only the beginning." The radicals openly rejoiced over the tying up of many industries and tramway services, forcing the bourgeois class to walk or skate to their offices.

Armed bands of civilians of both factions invaded cafes last night, searching patrons for weapons. Crowds ingnored the orders forbidding them to gather on the streets. Thousands in the Alexander Platz seized and disarmed policemen, shouting "Run along home, children." The American mission remained behind guarded doors in the Hotel Adon.

Basle, March 5.—Out of Berlin comes a Spartacan declaration for devastation and demolition designed to reduce the already nearly prostrate population of Germany to starvation and utter industrial ruin. It eclipses in intent even the blood-dyed pages of the Lenine-Trotsky horror records.

"We are trying to render the situation more intolerable than that in Russia," said Herr Schumacher, one of the Spartacan leaders. "When the factories are demolished and the people are starving we will rebuild on the ruins.

INGOMAR—A Woman of Redemption

"A Woman o fRedemption" is the title of a striking new World Picture which tonight will be shown at the Ingomar theatre. June Elvidge is the star of the production and her leading man is handsome John Bowers. There is no necessity for dilating on the beauty and acting ability of Miss Elvidge. Her prepossessing appearance and attainments are known to all the patrons of World-Pictures and they will be more than delighted with this new starring vehicle in which Miss Elvidge apears. "A Woman of Redemption" tells the story of the manner in which a woman secures the redemption of the man she has come to love. The story is largely located in the southern mountains amid scenes of exceptional beauty.

A 2 reel Fox Sunshine Comedy "Fatal Marriages" will also be shown.

TRIAL AGAIN POSTPONED

Case of Oehlert Set For March 31—Postponed Owing to Absence of Witness For Defense

Owing to the absence of a material witness for the defense the trial of William H. Oehlert, charged with shooting and killing Linwood Kidwell, was in the Corporation Court today postponed until March 31, by Judge R. H. L. Chichester. The witness who was absent is ill and at present out of the state. Arguments for a postponement were made by Attorney Edmund Burke, representing the accused.

A venire of sixty was ordered summoned for March 31 when this case again will be called for trial.

REPRESENTATIVE CARLIN RESIGNS

FORMAL ANNOUNCEMENT MADE AT RETAIL MERCHANTS' DINNER

Our Congressman Will Again Resume the Practice of Law in Partnership With His Son, Capt. Charles Keith Carlin, With Offices Here and in Washington—Announcement of His Determination to Leave The Political Arena After Twelve Years of Successful Work Received With Regret by His Many Friends—Retiring Congressman Did Much For Alexandria—Through His Efforts Two Big Plants Have Located Here, Which Resulted in Placing Alexandria, the City of His Birth, on the Map.

Representative Charles C. Carlin, of the Eighth Congressional district, has resigned as a member of the 66th Congress.

Congressman Carlin yesterday afternoon telegraphed his resignation to Gov. Westmoreland Davis and last night made a formal announcement of his resignation as a Congressman before the retail merchants of the city at their first annual dinner which was held in the auditorium of the Chamber of Commerce.

Just previous to reading his reasons for resigning, Representative Carlin, who was the first speaker scheduled to respond to a toast, said: "Just twelve years ago when I conceived the ambition to represent the 8th Congressional district it was the business men of the city who gave me the impetus and courage to win that contest.

"I therefore, thought it my duty to first make known to the business men my purpose to retire from Congress March 5, 1919. I have notified the governor that I will not qualify as a member of the 66th Congress. I desire to return to my profession as a lawyer.

Tendered Vote of Thanks

Immediately after Representative Carlin had announced his determination to retire from the political arena, after twelve years of activity and with two more years to serve, beginning with the 66th Congress, Julian Y. Williams moved that a rising vote of thanks be extended to Representative Carlin for his patriotic and loyal services in Congress during the past twelve years in Congress. The motion prevailed and every man in the room stood up.

Resignation a Surprise

The announcement of Representative Carlin's determination to retire from Congress came as a distinct surprise to those present. There were few if any, who had any idea that he contemplated resigning in as much as he has two more years to serve in Congress.

The following was Representative Carlin's statement as read but before the Retail Merchants' Bureau of the Chamber of Commerce at their first annual supper held in the auditorium of that organization: "On March 5, 1919, I wired to the governor of Virginia as follows:

"I hereby notify you that I will not qualify as a member of the 66th Congress from the Eighth Congressional district of Virginia, to which I was elected last November. A vacancy is thus created to be filled as provided by law."

"There are many reasons for this action on my part. First, it is impossible for me longer to retain my health and bear the physical strain of the constantly increasing demands made upon me.

"Second, I desire to return to the practice of my profession, where opportunities are at present open to me which might be closed with advancing years, and I have reached the conclusion that I owe it to my family and myself to do so now.

"I shall form a partnership with my son, Capt. Charles Keith Carlin, who will shortly return from France, with offices in Washington, D. C., and Alexandria, Va., the city of my birth, in the city of Alexandria.

"I would not be frank if I did not say that I have for several years contemplated this step, but believing that the 66th Congress would be Democratic and that there would be open to me greater fields of usefulness in the Congress of the United States, I was willing to sacrifice my personal interests, and even my health for my district and my constituents; but as the 66th Congress will be Republican these reasons no longer exist and although I confess it has caused me many heart pangs to reach this conclusion, and to sever my official connection with the district, and the people whom I know so well and for whom I have a genuine affection, yet for the reasons assigned I have decided to tae the course indicated.

"Since I have been your representative, I have been conscious of one desire, to serve the best interests of my constituents, my country and my state, and for twelve years I have abandoned my profession and given my entire time and attention to the interest of my district. I retire with the full knowledge that I have at all times fulfilled my duty to the best of my ability and for several years past have done so at the sacrifice of my health and financial interests.

"I wish to express to the people of the Eighth Congressional district the deepest gratitude for the honors they have conferred upon me. They will always be the object of my sincere affection."

Renominated In August

In the primary held August 6 Representative Carlin again showed his strength with his constituents through out the Eighth district when he was renominated by an overwhelming majority over E. B. White of Loudoun county.

In the election in November he was unopposed.

In all previous campaigns he had proved an easy winner over all competitors, at times overcoming the opposition in two in the field against him.

When the Republicans entered the race he always proved an easy winner and during the twelve years he served in Congress had gained strength each year judging from the increased number of votes given each time.

Loyal to Constituents

During his twelve years in Congress Representative Carlin has worked hard and faithfully in the interest of his constituents. He always on the job, both day and night. There were times when Mr. Carlin practically got no rest owing to his duties in Congress and to the fact that he was always doing something for some of his constituents. Probably there was not a man in Congress who was kept as busy as Representative Carlin. He saw practically all of his constituents who called on him.

Mr. Carlin without doubt accomplished more for his constituents than any other Congressman who has ever served from this district, he always being ready and willing to lend a helping hand to those needing assistance.

When it came to looking after Alexandria, the city of his birth, nothing was too good for the old city.

Gets Enterprise Here

It was Representative Carlin who was responsible for the coming of the big plant of the Virginia Shipbuilding Corporation here and it was Representative Carlin who was responsible for having the government locate its big torpedo assembly plant now in course of construction here.

Numerous other things were done for his district through his untiring efforts and in addition Mr. Carlin worked hard to secure government appropriations for good roads in his district and in this work he was successful.

Best Wishes of Friends.

Representative Carlin carries with him the best wishes of thousands of friends scattered throughout the district in his new field of work and also the best wishes of his fellow Congress men and residents of the District of Columbia for whom he also did much.

Mr. Carlin's Record

Charles C. Carlin was born in this city and educated in the public schools Alexandria Academy and at the National Law University, of which institution he is a graduate and president of the Alumnia Association; was Presidential elector on the Democratic ticet in 1904; was elected to the 60th Congress November 5, 1907, to fill a vacancy caused by the death of Representative John F. Rixey, over Ernest L. Howard, Republican; re-elected to the 61st Congress over J. W. Gregg, Republican; to the 62nd Congress without opposition; to the 63rd Congress over Fran R. Evans, National Progressive; and Milton Fling, Socialist; to the 64th Congress over Jseph L. Crupper, Republican; James E. Johnston, Progressive; and Milton Fling, Socialist; to the 65th Congress over Joseph L. Crupper, Republican; and W. H. Hamilton, Independent Republican, and to the 66th Congress over E. B. White, in Democratic primary and elected without Republican opposition.

Candidates for Office

Candidates are already seeking the position and it is expected that there will be several aspirants for the seat of Representative Carlin.

It is reported here that R. Walton Moore of Fairfax county and R. C. L. Moncure of Stafford county propose to enter the race for the office.

Col. E. B. White, of Loudoun county stated this afternoon that he had just learned of Representative Carlin's resignation today and while he expects to enter the race, though he will not make a formal announcement until the next few days as he desires to consult a number of his friends in the matter.

RETAILERS' BANQUET

More Than 100 Guests Attend Affair—Interesting Speeches Delivered—Housing Situation Theme of Several of Speakers.

More than 100 business men of this city last night sat down to the first annual supper given by the Retail Merchants' Bureau of the Chamber of Commerce in the auditorium of the Chamber of Commerce.

R. E. Knight, vice president of the State Retail Merchants' Association presided. The affair was opened with invocation by Rev. A. E. Speilman, pastor of Trinity M. E. Church.

During the evening addresses were made by the following: Representative C. C. Carlin, W. H. Schwarschild, Richmond, President of the Retail Merchants' Association of Va., W. A. Clarke, Jr., secretary of Retail Merchants' Association, of Virginia; Robert L. Payne, president of the Chamber of Commerce; F. H. Higgins, secretary of the Virginia Shipbuilding Corporation; R. B. Wallace, plant manager; of the Virginia Shipbuilding Corporation. Councilman Leopold Ruben, a director to the association from the Chamber of Commerce.

The supper was served by the management of Hotel Belvoir and Humphreys, F. Lee Emswiller, manager, and was one of the best spreads ever served in Alexandria. An elaborate menu was given. Of which all of the guests were loud in their praise and the splendid service.

MENU

Celery Olives Mixed Pickles
Grape Fruit Maraschino
Tomato Bouillon
Baked Shad Buttered Sauce
Filet Mignon Mushroom Sauce
Risolee Potatoes Green Peas
Asparagus Vinegarette
Demitasse
Neapolitan Ice Cream Cake
Cigars Cigarettes

Mr. Schwarzhild congratulated Alexandria on having seven hundred memberships in its Chamber of Commerce. He urged co-operation on the part of the merchants.

Messrs Clarke and Payne urged that active steps be taken toward improving the present housing conditions. The business men were asked by the speakers to get together on this proposition in order to accommodate the daily increasing population of the city.

"THE COMMON CAUSE."

With the press of the country so full of the idea of "a league of nations," and with this thought uppermost in the minds of all people as the date for the peace conference draws near, "The Common Cause," which actually shows the nations of the world banded together as one great force for righteousness, will take extraordinary significance.

Herbert Rawlinson and Sylvia Breamer are the featured players in "The Common Cause," and with them appear Charles and Violet Blackton, the talented children of J. Stuart Blackton, Lawrence Grossmith, Louis Dean, Huntley Gordon, Philip Van Loan and Mlle. Marcel.

Commodore Blackton has not only secured for this production dramatic talent of the very highest order, but every phrase of the work has been entrusted to master craftsmen. The authors of the play are J. Hartley Manners, author of "Peg o' My Heart" and other stage sucesses and Major Ian Hay Beith, noted author and playwright. Anthony Paul Kelly, who has achieved enormous success in the last few years, both on the screen and on the speaking stage, has written the scenario.

The musical score is the work of Manuel Klein, composer, and for ten years director at the New York Hippodrome. Don't fail to see the great picture and these superb artists at the Grand Theatre tonight, tomorrow matinee and night. Come early.

MR. CARLIN RESIGNS

The announcement last night that Congressman Charles C. Carlin had resigned and will not be a member of the Sixty-Sixth Congress came as a bolt out of a clear sky to his thousands of constituents. His action was taken at the zenith of his usefulness and popularity, and sincere regret is heard not only in Alexandria, but throughout the entire Congressional district, the state and in the District of Columbia, the latter section especially having long experienced his usefulness.

Mr. Carlin's statement, printed elsewhere in the Gazette, gives his reasons for relinquishing his position. He has been simply overworked; that is really the reason for his refusal to qualify as a member of the next Congress to which he was re-elected last year.

During the past twelve years Mr. Carlin has thrown all his powers into his duties as a Representative of the Eighth District of Virginia. While directing much of his attention to the welfare of his home city, he has ever manifested equal interest in every section of Virginia, while the District of Columbia, which has always looked upon the Representative from the Eighth District of Virginia as its Congressman, has enlisted his interest in all that concerns that section of the country.

Mr. Carlin during his incumbency has become a national figure, and the fact that Speaker Cannon, a republican, appointed him as the successor of De Armonde on the committee on the judiciary is one of the best indications that his ability was recognized in the council of the nation.

While the state will lose by the resignation of Mr. Carlin, the nation will also be deprived of the services of a man who has grown with the times, and who was a member of Congress at a time when the services of able men have been appreciated.ated.

But our own city! What will be said in Alexandria, in which place Mr. Carlin was born and reared? The city of his heart, into which he has brought prosperity. He has labored earnestly early and late for our commercial good, and after having been instrumental in landing great enterprises here, he relinquishes his duties at a time when he can least be spared. He does not leave under a political cloud, but at a time when his thermometer is rising, and when there is an almost unanimous wish that he would continue as our Representative.

We cannot help making comparisons. The Baltimore papers are lampooning a Maryland Senator for alleged incapacity and negligence at a time when that state expected much. A correspondent asks, "Is the junior Maryland Senator compos mentis? His actions during his last few speeches before the Senate certainly cast bad reflections on our good old state of Maryland, and also very bad reflections on his supporters in electing such a monkey-brained orator. His recent speeches made before the empty chairs of the Senate, especially the hot-air one of four hours of screeching, howling, pounding of chairs, slapping of desks, etc., showed him to be of the small fry genus. Shame on our grand old State to elect such a man that will try to kill time and postpone a world's peace of nations. His hot air speeches to empty benches drove the Senators out and caused the gallery audience to laugh and sneer at such a windbag."

While we sympathize with Maryland, we have better things to say of Mr. Carlin. He spent but little of his time in making speeches in the House of Representatives, but devoted his attention to his constituency, the humblest member of which he was always ready and anxious to aid.

There was an ancient saying, "There are many good men in Rome." There are many doubtless in this Congressional district, but Charley Carlin is, to us, the noblest Roman of all.

THE PASSING WINTER

While there has been a decided drop in the temperature during the past twelve or fifteen hours, the weather is comparatively mild, considering the fact that we are in the last lap of winter.

Fish seem to have availed themselves of the mild weather of the past few weeks, and herring are becoming plentiful in the Rappahannock, while a few of the advance guard of shad are appearing in the Virginia waters. As was stated yesterday, a shad was caught within two miles of Alexandria yesterday.

This winter, when there is coal enough to go round, our coal bins are all dressed up with no place to go, and householders are privately opining that they will be just as well pleased if the dealer never delivers the last third of their allotment.

Thomas de Quincy, who knew how to enjoy the good things of this world, used to shut himself up for the winter with a room full of books and an open fire in a cottage among the mountains of the English lake district, and then if he failed to get a winter of Arctic ferocity he was profoundly peeved, "because," said he, "why I am called on to lay in extra supplies of coals and candles if Iam not to get a winter worth my money?"

But memories in which last winter's exploits are still fresh are willing to let De Quincy have his winter de luxe. We find ourselves saying: "Only a few weeks to the first of April;" as if somehow we expected to beat the game.

MOVES TO SUPPRESS LYNCHING

Several anti-lynching measures under consideration by the Legislative of Texas include a resolution to submit to popular vote a proposition to amend the State Constitution so as to exclude a lyncher or a member of a lynching mob from holding public office and also from voting in that State, this plan to effectively punish the crime of lynching being a result of an anti-lynching campaign started by the San Antonio Express, which is published at San Antonio, Texas, and which embraces a fund of $100,000 established by that newspaper to pay rewards for the conviction and punishment of lynchers.

Texas has suffered seriously in repute, as have several other Commonwealths, from frequent lynchings, and a particularly recent case has aroused public sentiment to work for the abolishment of this grave offense against decency, law and order as never before, the argument being that as the duelist and the political corruptionist are excluded by the Texas Constitution from holding office, the lyncher fully merits like proscription.

BURGLARS TAKE SAFE

Slide it Down Plank From Upper Room And Flee in Automobile

Narberth, Pa., March 6.—While Dr. O. J. Snyder was absent from his home, at Narberth and Woodbine avenue yesterday evening, and only his wife and three children were in teh house, burglars drove into the yard, climbed up over a porte cochere into a second story bedroom and stole a table into which was built a safe. Despite its weight, they slid it down a plank from the porte cochere into an automobile and drove away.

It was not until some time later, when Mrs. Snyder went upstairs to put the children to bed, that the loss was discovered. Then Joseph, a 7 year-old son, recalled having heard an automobile in the yard. In the safe were $1500 in Liberty Bonds, $1000 in Thrift Stamps and jewelry worth $2500, including Mrs. Snyder's engagement ring.

Constable Walzer, upon being notified, organized an automobile chase, which covered much of Lower Merion township and extended into Fairmount Park, but the burglars had had too much time to cover their tracks and no trace of them was found.

EXPECTS STRIKE

Britsh Labor Leader Expects Failure of Inquiry of Government

London, March 6.—Failure to grant the miners' demands will result in a general strike of the "triple alliance" which would paralyze British industries and probably force a change in the government, Robert Williams, general secretary of the Transport Workers' Federation, declares.

"Triple alliance" is the common term for transport and railway workers and miners. Williams' organization alone numbers close to 300,000.

Williams, who next to J. H. Thomas and Robert Smillie is the most influential laborite in Great Britain, is not optimistic regarding the result of the government inquiry into the mining situation. He does not believe the miners will accept a compromise.

"Nationalization of an natural monopolies, with the workers participating in the management, is the only solution to the present labor unrest," said Williams. "It would go far toward preventing profiteering and decreasing the cost of living."

PRICES IN CONSTANTINOPLE

Cost of Living in Turkey Touches Figures Probably Not Attained Anywhere Else

Constantinople, March 6.—As you go East, prices rise. Turkey, as usual, carries the thing to a fantastic extreme.

In Constantinople bread is 80 cents a pound; eggs, 30 cents each (when they can be obtained); milk, 90 cents a pint (when it can be had); butter, $4.40 a pound;; sugar, $2.10 a pound, and soap, $1.35 a pound. As to clothing, a pair of poor quality shoes cost $28; a poor, native made laboring man's suit costs $87.50; a shirt and a suit of underclothing come to $22.75, and a pair of socks at $1.75—bringing the cost of an outfit for a workingman to $140.80.

TORNADO HITS TOWNS

Some Loss of Life and Heavy Property Damage in Alabama.

RICHMOND—The Belle of New York

One of the most famous productions the world has ever known, "The Belle of New York," will be seen at the Richmond Theatre tonight, with Marion Davis. "The Belle of New York" is Miss Davies' third Select Picture and is by far the best one she has ever appeared in. In the part of the Salvation Army lassie, made famous by Edna May in the great musical success of the same name, beautiful Marion Davies has a role for which she is well fitted. No other role could give Miss Davies such a splendid opportunity to display her exquisite beauty and individual charm.

"The Belle of New York" is the story of Violet Gray, a little Western girl, who becomes a cabaret singer and so popular that she is called "The Belle of New York." She later joins the Salvation Army and later still marries the son of one of the richest men of the Middle West.

An Orchestral Organ, combining the music of a regular orchestra has been installed at the Richmond. If you enjoy good music be sure and hear it tonight with the bright and catchy music of "the Belle of New York"

SILK HOSE NEEDED FOR HAPPINESS, COURT RULES

Detroit, March 6.—No woman can be happy or maintain her respectability while wearing cotton stockings, argued Mrs. Anthony Rotter, in court here.

Silk stockings, she told the court, are the panacea for the average woman's ills. She charged her husband with forcing her to wear cotton ones despite his $5,000 in the bank.

The court agered with her and granted a divorce.

DESPONDENT OVER ABSENT HUSBAND, WIFE SUICIDES

Philadelphia, March 6—Despondency, due to the absence of her husband, a former army officer now at Burkburnett, Texas, caused Mrs. Summer C. Evans, West Collingswood, N. J., according to her admission, to swallow a deadly poison in a local hotel early yesterday. Physicians say she cannt recover.

Herring are running well on the upper Rappahannoc river, The price is $6 a hundred wholesale and 75 cents a dozen.

The strike of tug boat engineers employed at Newport News by the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway Company has been settled by arbitrators at Washington and the men have returned to their work.

John McDowell, a negro, shot and killed his wife and seriously wounded his sister-in-law yesterday at Waytown, a negro settlement in North Carolina not far from Danville. The negro then surrendered, declaring that the actions of his wife had compelled him to take the step. He is in Rockingham county jail

"I did what I said I was going to do, and there are some others I am going to fix. The penitentiary can't hold me,' 'is the threat said to have been written by Thomas Brown, convicted of first-degree murder in Petersburg and which he is declared to have mailed to the aunt of the girl he killed. Brown was found guilty of shooting his 16-year-old sweetheart, Mary Jane Crowder, in an automobile last August. His defense was that the shot was accidental. He was sent to the penitentiary, sentenced to serve a life term.

A gloomy view of the moonshining situation is given in Danville by William T. Shelton, agent for the State prohibition commissioner. He states that illicit distilling is increasing by leaps and bounds, and that the force of men whose duty it is to cope with the evil is being diminished instead of increased. Revenue agents who have hitherto spent their time combing the woods for stills and running down clues have been called to devote their efforts to explaining the complicated revenue returns to be made to the Government. Moonshiners are revelling in this fact and, according to Shelton, where there was one still six months ago there are now five. The danger of detection has been greatly reduced and the demand for liquor, no matter what its quality, is insistent.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Charged with the theft of a score of automobiles, Florence Duke, 22, also known as Mrs. Arthur Barrington, of Philadelphia, yesterday admitted, police say, that she stole to provide an education for her son, who is said to be in Virginia. Arthur Barrington, the husband, is now serving a sentence in the Eastern penitentiary.

Holman C. Rawls, 34, head of the Q. E. Rawls & Son, dry goods firm, of Durham, N. C., shot and killed himself almost instantly yesterday morning in the basement of the store. He fired one shot through his left breast. No one in the store heard the report but he was found dead a few minutes later. He had influenza three weeks ago and its results seem to have torn his nerves.

Chicago, Illinois and the district from the lakes to beyond the Mississippi and Missouri valley were covered with snow yesterday. A drizzling rain turned to sleet during Tuesday evening and then into heavy snow flakes. Snows were reported from four to six and eight inches deep. Traffic was delayed, telegraph and telephone service hampered and mails were late.

For the first time in 50 years a Democrat, John H. Wilson, has been elected to Congress from Butler county, Pa., according to late returns from Tuesday's special election in the Twenty-second congressional district. With the returns virtually complete, Mr. Wilson is leading John M. Jamison, Republican, by 473 votes. He will occupy the seat left vacant by the death of E. E. Robbins.

The general strike which began Tuesday in Habana was spreading into the interior of Cuba. Reports were received that the sugar factories might be involved. Traffic in Habana was at a standstill except for a few taxicabs and private automobiles. The employes of the government controlled railways and ferries are out and work in the harbor has stopped. The strike is a result of the failure of the building trades unions to affect a settlement of their demands for an eight-hour day, a Saturday half holiday and a considerable increase in wages.

GAVE ALBERT CIGARETTE

American Airman Tells Story of Belgian Ruler Democracy

New York, March 6.—The man whom King Albert of Belgium asked for a cigarette arrived home today on the Sierra. His name is Byron Stowe and he lives in New York.

"I was in an airdrome the Americans captured at Knessel-Aere, Germany," he said. "A big plane landed and out stepped the pilot, a big, handsome fellow.

" 'Got a cigarette?" he asked.

"I gave up.

" 'And a match?'

"I gave him the match.

" 'American?" he asked.

"I said 'yes.'

" 'I'm a Belgian,' he said.

"I had heard about 'Albert's chariot,' and the man's manner was—well some how impressive.

"You're King Albert, I said.

" 'I'm Albert,' he replied, grining cheerfully."

PALMER SWORN IN

Takes Oath as U. S. Attorney-General—G. Carroll Todd Resigns As Asisstant.

Washington, March 6.—A Mitchell Palmer was sworn in yesterday as attorney-general of the United States, succeeding Thomas W. Gregory. The oath was administered by Chief Justice White. In a brief speech Mr. Palmer said:

"The policy of the Department of Justice will be the same as heretofore. It will be a plain, simple attempt by strong American men working for their country to see that the duty laid upon the Department is properly performed. That duty is to see that the laws are enforced on every man alike, without passion or prejudice, without fear or favor. It will be to enforce laws promptly and expeditiously."

Mr. Palmer's successor as alien property custodian, Francis P. Garvan, assumed his new duties at once.

G. Carroll Todd has resigned as assistant to the attorney-general after nearly 17 years of service with the Department of Justice in connection with trust prosecution work. He will remain in office until his successor is appointed by the new Attorney-General, A. Mitchell Palmer, and then probably will take up private law practice.

Mr. Todd, a native of Virginia, entered the Department of Justice in 1902 as a law clerk and a few years later was made special assistant to the attorney-general in charge of trust prosecutions. He has been the chief assistant to the attorney-general since 1913, and has served as acting attorney-general in the absence of the head of the department.

This makes two vacancies among assistant attorneys-general, Huston Thompson having resigned recently to become members of the Federal Trade Commission.

John Lord O'Brian, special assistant attorney-general in charge of enforcement of War Statutes, expects to retire soon to return to his law practice in Buffalo.

LOST MARYLAND $350,000

Baltimore Severe Sufferer Through Failure of $1,000,000 Provision Naval Academy Hard Hit

Washington, March 6.—In his filibustering activities during the last days of the session of Congress, Senator France talked to death over $3,500,000 of appropriations for Federal public works and the maintenance of Governmental institutions in Maryland. Practically $2,000,000 of this sum was to have been expended in the construction of permanent buildings at Baltimore, Annapolis, Hagerstown, Cumberland, Easton, Elkton, Ellicott City and Laurel, so that every section of the State is made to suffer and the Congressmen from every district had their efforts brought to naught by Mr. France.

Through the defeat of the Naval Appropriation bill, which was on the Senate calendar and assured of passage, if the flow of oratory of Senators France, Sherman and Knox had not blocked all legislation, salaries of civilian professors, chemists and other experts, as well as the wages of hundreds of superintendents, foremen and others, skilled as well as unskilled laborers at Annapolis are now tied up in the limbo of things to be considered at some future date.

Baltimore city's $1,000,000 appropriation for repairs and additions to its long since outgrown now cramped and crowded Postoffice Building was among the items that died during the filibuster. Another bit of dead legislation wherein the city comes off a loser was that carrying $176,000 to be expended by the Government in buying from the city the old quarantine station near Hawkins Point. This property is already being operated under direction of and supervision by the United States Public Health Service, but the city has yet to receive payment for it.

In the general view of wrecked hopes here stands out only one thing which the last Congress provided for Maryland, This is the legislation which Mudd, of the Fifth district, got through authorizing Secretary of the Treasury Glass to advance to the Washington, Brandywine and Point Lookout Railroad $50,000 and take the road as security. This, fortunately was disposed of in the earlier part of the third session and resulted in saving the road, which is the only means of communication with the outside world for most of the lower Southern Maryland counties. The road at the time this legislation was passed was about to be scrapped and carried away bodily by a New York syndicate which held a mortgage.

DEVASTATION OF FRANCE

Wreck And Ruins by Huns Described by a French Man

Lieut. Col. Phillipe Bunau-Varilla, the noted French engineer, who was long identified with the Panama Canal activities, in the course of an interview in the Wall Street Journal, in attempting to describe the utter desolation in a portion of France, said:

"I have for three years been continually living among ruins at the front, but they were ruins where men lived and fought. The ruins of the rich country from the North Sea to Montdidier are nothing but death. I could not from Douai to Lens see even a dog's house standing. You cannot detect the slightest trace of even animal life in what was once the richest and busiest center of agriculture and mining in France. Your mind is seized with deep horror and you cannot imagine how so many thousands and thousands of houses, mills and mining works which have been reduced to naught can be resuscitated within a generation."

Referring to the efforts which Germany may make to escape payment of an indemnity for the fearful destruction which it has brought upon the world, Colonel Bunau-Varilla said:

"The task is a long one, but it will be done, and the bandits who have tried in the twentieth century to surpass the infamy of Attila, Genseric and Alaric will have to pay for it. It will be the first and most necessary act of justice. How much Germany can pay will be the second question to determine, but first of all she must be shown what debt she has contracted toward the world. This debt includes not only billions of dollars necessary to re-establish what has been destroyed materially, but also the sums which have been spent to prevent the great crime, to save the liberty of man and preserve the life of nations which Germany wanted to erase from the face of the earth.

"Germany will not escape the real consequences of having been a tool in the hands of a bloodthirsty maniac," said Colonel Bunau-Varilla, commenting on the increase of Bolshevism in Russia and Germany. "She may try to camouflage herself in order to avoid payment for her misdeeds. She may assume even the anarchistic aspect. This must be held by the Allies as a pure comedy. The main virtue of the Germans—and it is a great one—is discipline, the thing most contrary to the anarchistic spirit. Therfore, I do not believe that Bolshevism is a menace in Germany. If it ever happens I shall rather believe it a new trick of war than a sudden magic transformation of the German character."

Only results—the inviting appearance, the fine even texture and delicious tastiness of foods leavened with it—can truly prove how much better Rumford is.

WOULD MAKE GERMANY PAY.

Many months ago we warned the country that the tremendous power of the big financial interests of Germany would work through neutral countries and even through America itself to save Germany from adequate punishment and to keep that country from having to pay the cost of the war to America and the Allies. But are the people of America willing to see our Allies and our own country for many years to come pay enormous war taxes in order that the German murderers may be saved from doing so?

Are we willing to see Americans taxed to the utmost that Germany may go free?

Are we willing to see our Allies burdened to the breaking point in order that a nation of lustful murderers should escape the penalty of their crimes?

If we should take such a stand as this we would go contrary to the teachings of God himself and we would simply encourage Germany to prepare for another war, feeling that even if it did not win it would not have to pay the cost.

The duty of civilization is to make Germany repudiate every dollar of its war indebtedness, that its own people from the highest to the lowest may learn the financial penalty of their crimes, and then to place upon Germany an indemnity sufficient to keep that country straining for the next fifty or a hundred years to pay it.

Anything less would be a premium upon crime and an encouragement to other wars.—(Manufacturers' Record.

Methodists in Jersey City Grant Increase in Salaries

Philadelphia, March 6.—Methodist Episcopal churches of the New Jersey Conference, with the exception of about 10 per cent have granted an increase of from $200 to $600 in salary to the pastors for this year, according to the reports of the district superintendents, which will be submitted at the annual session of the conference, which begins March 12 in Ocean Grove.

The ministers of the Bridgeton district have decided to protest the transfer of Dr. Alfred Wagg, superintendent of that district, to the New Brunswick district. The Rev. Alexander Corson, pastor of the Broadway Church, Camden, is slated to be made superintendent of the district.

The official board of the First Church, Camden, will ask the conference to appoint an assistant pastor of the church this year. The pastor, the Rev. Holmes F. Gravatt, is ill, and the congregation wants to give him a rest.

CRIME BLAME FIXED

Commission Report to Out do Official Accounts of Atrocities

London, March 6.—The commission appointed to inquire into responsibility for beginning the war and for the horrors committed by the enemy has almost finished its work, and its report will be completed by the end of this week, according to the Paris correspondent of the Daily Express. He says:

"It is worse than any official account of outrages yet published. Proof has been established against criminals from the highest to the lowest. Names will not be published, but identities are known, and in some cases whereabouts also. The commission will suggest establishment of internaitonal prosecutions, as well as an international bench. Penalties will be left to the judges to determine.

"Those of the allied criminals at present in countries belonging to the league of nations will be surrendered If neutral countries desire to join the league, surrender will be a sort of an entrance fee and the same thing will apply naturally to Germany and other enemy nations.

"The Peace Conference itself will be left to decide whether prosecution of the Kaiser is possible and desirous."

EXODUS TO THE NORTH

Colored Laborers Get Better Wages in North During War Period

The South lost 350,000 of its colored laborers during the war because of high wages in the North, special investigation of the Department of Labor showed.

The estimate of migration to the North shows that 200,000 left the Southern cotton fields during eighteen months in 1916 and 1917, and officials are confident that 150,000 more came during 1918.

Investigators estimate that between 35,000 and 40,000 colored men left Georgia in 1916 and 1917, and the number leaving Alabama during the same time is estimated at 75,000. State officials, however, made higher estimates placing the number who left Georgia at 50,000, Alabama, 90,000 and Mississippi, 100,000.

Lack of labor in the North, due to the cessation of immigration and war demands, was the principal cause, the investigators agree.

Large numbers were attracted by letters from their friends who had already gone North, the investigators reported.

POLICE RAID PARIS CLUB

Champagne $15 A Bottle at Franco-American Organization

Paris, March 6.—Much comment has been aroused by the raid made on the Franco-American Parthenon Club by Inspector Tanguy of the Paris police. The inspector says he suspected that various games of chances were in operation there and declares he discovered that champagne was being sold for $15 a bottle and that orangeade cost one franc a glass. The evidence, the inspector added, was sufficient to warrant closing of the club. Thirty men, including several American officers, and 10 women were in the club when the inspector and his men walked in Monday night.

Baroness Brault, who presided over the destinies of the club, says it was a literary and artistic organization. She is indignant over various reports in circulation and declares that the only purpose of the club was to entertain American officers.

HUNS TO RESIST HARD PEACE

Cabinet Agrees Not to Submit to Allied Coercion.

Paris, March 6.—At a meeting of the German Cabinet Monday morning attended by party leaders and delegates of shipowners, it was agreed unanimously, it is understood, that Germany could not submit to coercion from the Entente Powers, either in the armistice negotiations or in the peace pourparlers proper, according to a Zurich dispatch to Le Journal.

The German Government declared that it will decline all responsibility for possible consequences if "the Entente tries to speculate on German patience." Demands regarding the requisition of shipping are held to be absolutely inacceptable because, it is said, it would definitely "paralyze the country's economic future."

Germany also will oppose the dismissal of German crews from ships requisitioned, it being pointed out that this would throw 42,000 seamen out of employment.

A press campaign has already been started against the armistice and the preliminary peace conditions.

JEWISH STATE OPPOSED

Objection to Palestine Project to be Voiced at Peace Table

Philadelphia, March 6.—A statement signed by 300 prominent American Jews setting forth their objections to the organization of a Jewish state in Palestine, as proposed by the Zionist Societies in this country and Europe, to be presented to the Peace Conference in Paris, was made public here Tuesday night. Objection to the segregation of the Jews as a nationalistic unit in any country is also made in the statement, which will be presented to the Peace Conference by Representative Julius Kahn of California.

AGED COUPLE RE-WED

Bride And Bridgroom Had Each Married in the Meantime.

Mercer, Pa., March 6.—A romance out of the ordinary has resulted in the remarriage of Andrew Jackson Jacobs, 82 years old, and Mrs. Sarah Lamb Stoddard, 79 years old, in Jackson Center after a separation of 58 years.

The couple were married in 1857, when Jacobs was 20 years old and the bride 17 years old. Four years later they were divorced, and Jacobs enlisted in the army. He served through three enlistments in the civil war and was severely wounded in two engagements. Returning at the end of the conflict he married Miss Malinda Wesland, of Millbrook, Mercer county. They lived together for 49 years until her death in 1915.

After the separation at the outbreak of the Civil War, Mrs. Jacobs remained unwed until in the early seventies, when she was married to Harry Stoddard, of Youngstown, Ohio. He died in 1888. She has resided since that time in Mercer county with her daughter.
